Monte Faro de Luz [Valencia de Alcántara (Cáceres) - SPAIN]

Visionary: "I see stars, thousands of stars in the sky. I see you with a White Mantle, covering all that is seen and unseen. You have twelve stars on your head - what fire they emit! How beautiful you are! I do not see your face, but I see you are beautiful, covering all mankind with your mantle."

Our Mother begins her message:

"My children, how happy I am with you, to see that you are fulfilling the Mission of my Heart! But look: you still have to persevere more, you have to pray, my children, because you still have physical fatigue in your hearts and you get tired immediately and you do not know how to speak with the Almighty. Look: when your eyes are filled with sleep, open them, take the Bible and read it. It is the Devil who hinders your good deeds and I want you to fill yourselves with the Word of my Son, so that you, when you are with other children, may speak of the Wisdom of my Son because, my children, you are still afraid to open your doors to speak to men about the Word of my Son.

You are unfolding the Mystery of my Heart, you have begun your pilgrimage. No, my children, may it not be your heart that says "no", but may instead your soul say "Yes!", for you are already understanding and savouring the mysticism, the mystiques, so that your hearts may be surrounded by the voice of my Son. Little children, you must cry out and you must jump for joy for so many Mysteries that you are seeing. You still do not understand anything because you have not yet come to prayer. There is still in your hearts attachment to the world and to the "I". That is why you do not let my Son be heard, for in Him are the Glories and you have the better part, my children, for you hear my Messages. But you must change your lives, for so much is given to you that if you do not comply, it will be taken from you. Therefore, when you hear the Message I give to my son [the visionary], you must comply and be obedient to my call, for if you do not do so, you will never be able to taste the Harvest of my Son.

Your Mother has chosen you, my little ones. Do you know why I have chosen you? Because you are my little children. You were with your eyes closed but you had love and that love - I do not cast it into oblivion. Therefore, I want you to repent of your poor habits and to know how to live in Grace and for Grace. You must mortify yourselves, my children, be kind, obedient and humble, that the word that comes out of your hearts be for the good of others, and the words that come out of the heart of others, be likewise for the good of others. Therefore, my children, it is time for you to humble yourselves and know how much you must say in love and for love.

Look, I have left this son of mine, not for you, but for so many of my children, so that he may carry the Word and the message of my Son. Although this son of mine still has to polish himself and humble himself, but he is chosen for these duties. That is why the Father does not allow him to listen to himself, as I have told you so many times, because in this way he would see his heart expand, that he might proceed in the way of the World.

My little ones, I have made you come to this place because your Mother has no places, they are every place. Here you pray so that you may meditate on those things that you must release from your souls, that everything may be a path, my children, of penance and prayer. Behold - I am saying it many times, you have to walk, my children. In other places I will stop you so that you may also pray there, because your Mother is always with all her children who seek her and love her.

Continue, my children, making and carrying my Image to all the corners of the earth. Do not look at timetables... Nor hours, nor days, nor minutes because, my children, I will place in your hearts the moments, the schedules, the days and the hours. This is so, my children, the things of Heaven have no hours, no minutes, no days. God the Father does it this way because it is best for all His children.

Joy you carry in your hearts, you have not yet assimilated the power and greatness of all the events you have had. Keep them in your hearts and meditate on them, bring them into the Light so that other brothers and sisters may see the Greatness of God.

Lucia is a little daughter of Mine, Teresa, Andrea, Juana, Amparo, Micaela, Sofia, Julia. All my children who come to me in love are my little ones. That is why you, who have seen more than others would like to see, that is why, my children, do not forget, because you have been on holy ground, where are my children, consecrated and saints. Imitate them, imitate them as my little one imitated her Creator. That is why she is already on earth with a halo of Holiness, because she also made herself small and humbled herself, even though she saw Me and my Son.

But it does not matter, my little ones, because you also have in your souls the King of Kings when, in contrition and purity, you take my Son, as you take Me. God is in Heaven and on Earth, go on your way my children, communicate this Message to that little one of mine, so that she may also realise the Greatness that you have had. That is why she is also in my Heart. She is the stronghold by which you go this way or that. She is prayer and you are action. But do not forget, my children, that if you do not pray more, more, you will not be able to reach and carry in yourselves the Message of your Mother. Hide yourselves, my children, in silence and make yourselves small and love each other, pray, never say "no", say "yes", my children, because I know that you have had this intention from the beginning."

Visionary: "And You, with Your face You give Light to the Earth, How the stars glitter in Your head! And You, Lady, with Your eyes looking at the Earth, You are crying because You are seeing that man is ungrateful and does not look at Heaven..."
