Monte Faro de Luz [Valencia de Alcántara (Cáceres) - SPAIN]

Our Mother begins her message:

My children, my little ones, what joy you give me when you are gathered together praying and asking for all my children!

Look, today is a great day in Heaven and on earth, but it is greater in Purgatory. Behold, since dawn, since the day began, I am rescuing souls to bring them to the Throne of God the Father, my Son and the Holy Spirit, my Spouse.

Look, my children, today I come to cover you with my Brown Mantle of penance. Brown is penance. Yes, my son, penance is what you are doing. But your pain, my son, is very strong, that is why you complain. But you have to be strong, to crawl, to humble yourself, because I bless you, my son, as I bless these children of mine who are here and those who are not here too, because today many of my children are praying for those in Purgatory.

Look, my son, I am pulling out so many souls and some of them have been here for one hundred and fifty, three hundred, five hundred, one thousand years.... On earth they are many years, but here they are seconds. But they are already saved by your prayers. Today I desire, my children that all the prayer that is done, you communicate with Purgatory, that everything is for its sake.

A Mission you have, my children, still to accomplish. You have not completed the Mission, for the days will come when you will not want to do it, because the pain will weigh you down. I will not stop carrying you on wings from one place to another, but look, you are chosen and selected for these tasks. Do not lose heart, unite and love one another. Behold, let all your speech always be of God. Therein lies the root, because sometimes you do not understand or comprehend that a word poorly spoken wounds hearts. Therefore, my children, always go with your thoughts set on your God, my God the Creator.

My daughter, you have done well to come because today I tell you that your husband has long been at the Table of your God, my God. But one thing I say to you: my daughter, you must pray much for those who are close to you often. Suffer, my daughter, even if the pain pierces you. Keep walking and paying for them. You have a mission in life, save them, speak to them about God, let them seek the root of God as you have it, my daughter. But you have to humble yourself and nail yourself to the Cross with Me so that this family may go to the Light.

And you too, my children, must humble yourselves and suckle your darling children and families. Go preach the Gospel, as you carry me here and there, you must preach the Greatest of my children, for I will always go with you and I will place my Cloak and my Hands on your hearts so that you may have Light to speak and preach the Gospel of my Son.

Do not be alone, my children. Make friends, companions and brothers, for I want a large flock. Listen to your Mother, unite and love one another for I bless you and I will bless you always.

Tell my little one that the mission she has is of the Cross, of work, of penance and of love. Tell her, my children, all at the same time, because the mission of this daughter of mine is the Tabernacle. You are wanderers, to one side and to the other because that is what the Father desires.

You are making a small flock that will be big if you continue to say "Yes". Today there are other brothers but one day more brothers will arrive and you must open your arms to them because you are all one in my Son. My children, do not wish to be greater than the others but humble yourselves and let the last be first. Love them, gather them, caress them, kiss them, love them, bless them in the name of your God, my God and Mine.

Keep walking, my children, the Mission is being accomplished because I, your Mother, want you to be little children that I may carry you in my arms, caress you and tell you how many things you must do in this world. Tread on the world, tread on Satan, he wants to confuse you, he wants to take you to other places, along other paths, but if you come to Me, your Mother will continue to be with you, giving you encouragement and love.

Now the Mission is being fulfilled. You have done a part of it, my children. Pray for the souls in Purgatory. Today your Mother is pulling out and will pull out many of my children who are longing to be with God the Father, my Son and The Holy Spirit, my Spouse.

Look, my children, I place my scapular on your hearts and I place my Hands on you and I bless you. Keep on walking, carry on, carry on.... Do not weep, my children, weep for your sins, for your faults, convert and be children of mine, children of God, of truth, in love, in love, in love...
