Our Mother begins her message:

"My little one, the time has come for this land, my land, to be trodden by men and for men to create a "state of love" to pray and to pray for all my children at the Beacon of Light. Centuries ago I set my feet here because the Father, my Creator, your Creator, thus willed it. I am not only here, my children, but also in so many places in the world.

I give Messages in the whole world but men withdraw, they do not wish to listen to the voice of their Mother because man is in luxury, in pleasure, in lies, in deception. Men speak of peace and then wage war, men feed other men in order to relieve them of their hearts.

My children, Satan is in the bodies of many of my children and he does not want these children of mine to advance in the spirituality of love for my Son. That is why I have come here to tell you, my little ones, that for five months, on the second Friday of every month, to come here to meditate on the Passion of my Son.

Pray for my son the Vicar, the Pope, pray for my sons the priests, of whom the world speaks so badly. My children, they are your shepherds, without them you have no salvation, they extend the forgiveness of sin through my Son.

Here at the Beacon of Light, you see that you and others like you, when they come and go, something makes them feel something - because God sends his Angels where He wills. This is a place of prayer.

I want, my children, that later, when you come back here, you come to pray to my Immaculate Heart, on the first Saturdays of the month. I want to save you all, as I said to my daughter Lucia one day: "Look at my Heart, with thorns and nails that men pierce daily on account of their sins. Repair it for me, my daughter". It was like that for a while, but men have forgotten to pray.

I want my Heart to go out here to men because I will save all those who dedicate the first five Saturdays of the month to me, pray with me and ask and pray for the Pope. My children, it is all very simple but you must change your hearts. I will bring souls here because I have placed my feet in this place and it is holy.

You, my children, go and seek the Scent of your God, my God the Creator, your God the Creator, so that He may come to your souls and be the refuge of your hearts. I have already said that when my Son was on earth with his Apostles, his disciples asked him, "Master, where do you live?", and my Son said to them, "Come and see! He did not tell them the exact place. Go and look for Him too, for without my Son you are nothing. Drink and eat his Body and Blood and you will have Life. Tabernacle, He has remained in the Tabernacle for you and you must go to Him.

My children, you must change your hearts. Have a heart of clean and pure flesh, crystalline like your Mother. This is how I am, come and imitate me, my children, for I want my Heart to be with your hearts.

Love one another, but truly, without rancour, without anger, without insults, without blasphemy. Go with your arms ever outstretched to Heaven, seeking your God, my God, for He will give you the wisdom for forgiveness. My children, I love you and I will pour out graces as I am now pouring them out here to all of you and to all those who come. I will be here always with the Angels of my Creator and Lord.

Now, my children, I bless you as the Father blesses you, my Son of Love, the Holy Spirit, my Sanctifying Spouse, your Mother Miriam, Heart of Mary, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light.

Love one another, children. Love one another and seek your God that you may have Life. Go into the world preaching the Word of my Son, which so many need and so many are condemned because they have no one to pray for them. Therefore, you are lights like this Place and you must also bring the Light to your brothers.

Farewell my children, I love you, I carry you in my Heart..."
