Private house [21° Anniversary]

My little ones, my children, peace be in your hearts and the light of my Light in your souls.

What a great day it is today, my children! Beacon of Light, twenty-one years old, how beautiful, my little one, a quarter to three in the afternoon, I come to this mountain of love, Beacon of Light, and I say to you: "Come here on the first nine Fridays of the month, do the Passion of my Son" You blushed, more so my little one who was looking at me and I was showing him my Immaculate Heart. I am the second part of Fatima. My Heart with the Heart of my Son, we will triumph in the world, but first, my children, you will see so many things, good and bad. Churches will be emptied, churches will close, many convents will close. I was transmitting it to you, my son, you were crying because you were seeing it. They will speak ill of the Pope, and they also want to crucify him like my Son Jesus; John Paul II, who on a Saturday, the first Saturday of the month, already in Faro de Luz, my children, I told you: "pray a lot because my son is in agony", and at a quarter to twenty minutes to nine, he was giving his life to my God, your God.

I told you, you will not understand this, nor will you understand it, but I want that when you finish doing what I am telling you, I will appear here every first Saturday of the month, tomorrow in another place that I will tell you and you will make the Holy Rosary to my Heart, invocation to the Lighthouse of Light, that from today I call myself LIGHTHOUSE OF LIGHT; I gave you the place to pray, but always the same Message that I bring to the world: conversion of the world, conversion of families, and pray that all mankind may be saved, but not by Me alone but by my Son who died for all mankind, before, after, today and tomorrow and the end. But men are ungrateful, they do not want to seek their God, it is revelry that the world has today, sin after sin, hatred after hatred, war after war, but you who are coming here to Beacon of Light will be great in my Heart, in the Heart of my Son, I will bring my children to get down on their knees and ask for all mankind, the salvation of the world.

Why have I come to this family today? I want you to be better, you are good, I want you to pray more, because look, there will come a time when you will make prayer groups in homes, not a few, but the whole of humanity, because the churches will be closed, you will have few priests, you will suffer much, you will have a hard time, but those who follow the Heart of my Son and my Heart, we will take them to the Heavenly Abodes that my Lord Creator, your Creator, has always made for the good, for those who love their God.

You are going through dangerous times because Satan has little time left on earth, everything is going to be cut off, but first these things will come that other seers, that I have communicated to them, the days of darkness, the spoiled family; the children instead of going to God will go to the things of the Devil, children that we are already seeing, twelve, fourteen, sixteen, eighteen years old only think of the flesh, of hate, lies, drunkenness, where are they going to end up? The family is already destroyed, not even an Our Father is prayed to the author of life, to my Son, to God; and in many families they are defeated, by lies, deceit and also by drugs, meat, hatred, lies; that is why, my children, the world is destroying itself, they themselves, because they believe in the Devil more than in their Creator God.

Family, you who are here, I said I was coming to your house, it is not the last house, because my son, from today onwards, will go to many houses.

The darkness is coming in a short time, I want to tell you, it is already here, and you have to pray a lot; your machine-gun is the rosary. Go more to the Tabernacle, my children, how many times have I said it in Faro de Luz, Tabernacle, Tabernacle, Tabernacle, it is the one that feeds your souls. Good family, family of love, here I am, my children, although you do not see me, I am with my mantle wrapping all of you who are here, all those who could not come from the family, I am Mother of all; but look, you have to suffer, you have to, in silence, take the Holy Rosary, as you say on earth; yes, it is Holy because it is mine, but I want you, my children, to meditate the Passion of my Son, if you can every day. Look at what you did with my Son and put into practice, not as He carried the Cross but when you have some small cross, for many of you it is big, but it is small, the big one you know my Son carried, do not be afraid, go on in silence, offer it all and offer it for your families first and then for the whole world. You are the pillars, you are, as the Gospel says, the salt of the earth, you have to salt, you have to take the Gospel to the world, you have to speak of my Son; when you have a gathering of souls, of men or women who are not like you, withdraw, withdraw and, at a given moment, in silence, pray for them, for their conversion, you who are a family of prayer, be more.

Notice that there are no victim souls in the world, very few, who give their lives for others; how beautiful it is to say: "Lord, I want to give myself for the world, for the salvation of the world, for those souls who are doing evil" Those intolerable wars waged by men who are full of demons, I said some time ago, "Spain is full of demons": "Spain is full of demons" And how true, my children, these laws that are bringing out the monsters, not these alone but of the world, that violence, of that agony, of those pleasures that do not bring about anything good, but to destroy man. You must pray much, my children, strengthen yourselves in the Love of my Son. I am the Beacon of Light, I am with all of you who seek the Beacon of Light, I heal and cure the soul and the body because my Son wants it so, and I appear in the Beacon of Light doing miracles; how many of my children say, alas, we are so few! No, my children, you are not few, you are already millions, Beacon of Light is in the whole world, and they pray to me when I appear anywhere in the world, the world goes to pray to my Heart, but I want the world not to be a Sodom and Gomorrah, a Noah's Ark; as Moses threw away, you know, the Commandments that my Creator gave him to bring salvation to the world, but he had to throw them away when he saw that, his people, as they were with the golden calves, with the lies, the deaths and the deceptions, they no longer believed in that God of Moses; therefore, my children, do not turn yourselves into idols, nor into fashions, nor into these things that bring to the world perverse things that destroy the man of good will.

My little ones, I love you all, and I also want the world to know this Message. Family I love you, I kept my word, you now have to keep it, take the Gospel of my Son to all those who come to you, and do not forget the mass, the mass is the most sacred thing you have in the world, because there will come a day when man will not be able to hear mass because the Catholic, apostolic, Roman Church of my Son will collapse in time. Pray that there may be good priests; yes, pray that there may be many priests, because the Church is currently in a state of silence, of cowardice, and this will be paid for. The Church of my Son will never collapse, but moments of anguish will pass, as other moments have already passed, if man does not love his God, God withdraws from man; that is why today I tell you, my children, to be with the Pope, to love the Pope, even though many people are riddling him, even though many do not believe in him. What does man know, why does man judge, why does man speak? The Pope, as I have told you before, is appointed by the Holy Trinity, he is the work of God, the work of Heaven, love him, love him, love him. When the bad Pope comes, the Devil, you will already know him by his works, but these Popes you are getting to know by their goodness and their Holiness, John Paul II, Paul VI, John Paul I, even this Pope you have now is holy, respect him, respect him and do not criticise or speak ill of the Pope or anyone else, only God, my God, your God, judges; and I tell you one thing, my children, love one another, not four, not five, not ten, not twenty, love one another as my Son loved you to the end and say to him: "Lord, may your will be done in my soul, make me holy, Lord, because that is why you begot me and brought me to earth, so that I may bear the holiness of your love in my soul and be holy, not of pedestal but of love, charity, understanding" and that you give everything because your God gives you everything for free and you also have to give for free everything that God, my God, your God, gives you; be loving, be submissive to prayer too, and be perfect in everything, and thus you will be those children that my God the Creator wants, holy as the Heavenly Father is Holy; many will say, we cannot be saints, we are human, because we are not Saint John of the Cross or a Saint Teresa of Jesus, or a Saint Rose of Lima; yes, my children, you can because you are men like them, but they said, "if I follow you, I love you, I adore you, do what you want with me, if you give me your Love I will follow you and with your help I will be those saints, saints that you want me to be". That is what you all have to say.

So my children, keep walking with love and for love; Sagrario, Sagrario, Sagrario.

And now, my children, I say goodbye, but a goodbye that is not going to be that goodbye that is said until later, until always, no, I will be here as long as you call me Beacon of Light, I will be here with all of you as soon as you tell me. First of all, the Lord, my Lord, your Lord, bless you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

And now, my children, I also give you a blessing, and I am wrapping you with my mantle, I will never leave you if you call me, Beacon of Light they call me, Beacon of Light I am, he who wants my Light the Light will have it forever in his heart.

Farewell little ones, farewell my children, farewell, farewell.
