Monte Faro de Luz [Valencia de Alcántara (Cáceres) - SPAIN]

The visionary speaks to our Mother:

Yes, we love you Mother, we all love you, we all love you, we want your protection; strengthen us in our hearts, help us with your arms and your Heart, lead us to Jesus, your Son and our Master, do not leave us, stay by our side always, give your Mercy to all your children in the world, they need You, Mother, yes, Mother.

The Message begins:

My little ones, my children, peace be in your hearts and light of my Light in your souls.

Meditate, my children, KINGS, in this way you will know my God, your Creator God, do it.

Today I come happy, very happy, but not for you alone, but because I am giving my Light to all mankind, but I also come sad because many of my children have left the fold of my Son of Love. Be faithful, my children, know that you are entering into penance, Ash Wednesday is coming; and what does this mean, my children? In the last message I gave in the Little House, my Little House there in Madrid, I said: "an apple, if you like it, leave it for another day and offer it for poor sinners to my Son of Love and to my Immaculate Heart".

Stop, my children, criticising the Pope so much, he is Christ on earth, my children, placed by the Trinity; but man, how far will he go; always murmuring, always criticising. Who are you, my children? The Gospel of my Son says: "Let him who is blameless cast the first stone" But you, my children, the whole world, you cannot, because you are not good. Be, my children, as I want you to be, pure and obedient; and take the Gospel of my Son and carry it out, not for yourselves alone, but for the world. Look at the churches, I have said it so many times, they are empty, the people have put their faith aside; but why do they do this if my Son is the same God as always, and the faith they have had, why now, my children, does it crack and they do not go where they must go? To the Tabernacle, to the church, where my priest children are giving that communion, that Holy

Mass; and you have to go to confession more often, to ask not only for yourselves but for all mankind. What is happening in the world my children? It is sin, Satan, that brings evil, miseries, and man is entering into those miseries. Men who say they used to have faith, but the devil is very cunning and he comes through the senses and falls, falls until he drags them down and that love and that greatness they had in their hearts to go to Holy Mass, to confess and to receive communion is gone.

My children, how many times I have said it, Tabernacle, Tabernacle, Tabernacle and how little you go, you pass by. You, apostolic, Roman Catholics, my children, you have to do everything, or more, to be with your God there saying to Him: "And you, my children, with your sorrows and your joys, tell everything to my God, your God, who is waiting for you with open arms, is waiting for you, but do not be of one day, or of one minute, or of routine, my children, be perfect in prayer, kneel down; remember you, and all mankind, that my Son and I, with that Cross and with that Crucifixion, was God, was God; and you, who are you my children? You have to imitate the Cross of my Son, that is why I ask you this Lent to follow in the footsteps of my Son, the Cross of my Son, even if the pain pierces you and you are a crucifix, it will always be your God, it will be giving strength so that this cross is light; because, look, my children, you are here to deserve and be saints, if you do not look to the fullness of being saints, how will you enter the Kingdom of Heaven?" "I cannot be a saint, because God has made the saints, or God makes them when He wants and how He wants. Yes, my children, but we are all children of God, the saints made an effort, they took up the cross, they denied themselves and followed that Cross of Love, and we, you, my children, must be the same, deny yourselves, take up your cross, whether it is big or small; what hurts you, my son, it hurt my Son more, as a man he went through everything, more than you can go through. Heal yourselves, my children, with the breath and aroma of my Son of Love.

Look to Heaven, seek Heaven, be perfect, be holy, be humble, take off your ego and the self that you have, you cannot allow that; it is the Devil who interferes, you shout, you criticize, you speak ill of one or the other, that is not love, that is not Heaven, Heaven is humility and to Heaven go the purified souls, the souls who truly ate the Body and drank the Blood of my Son to have eternal life. Strengthen yourselves, my children, with what I tell you, communion, confession, love, spirituality, do not be in a hurry for God, seek God; and when you go, my children, to the temple of my Son, do not go for a little while and say goodbye, there you stay; no, stay a little while with Him and tell Him: "Lord, these sorrows, these joys, these things that I want You to tell me, what I have to do", He will speak in your hearts and He will never leave you abandoned.

Love the Pope very much, the priests who are your protectors on earth; my children, you are going to have a drought of priests very soon and you don't realise it, you have to ask your God, my God, to send priests, you are going to have a great drought, the world is prepared for evil, because the Devil is already dominating humanity, don't you see it my children? How many things are happening, even my people and my Son's people are in a bad way, they are at war, they are killing each other, like other countries; but this is not only, this is brought by sin, my children, it is not the belief in your God. So cheer up, go to confession, go to penance, go to church, fill the churches; and most of all, love your priests very much, do not criticise them, do not criticise them, they are men like you, there are mistakes, but they are there for the salvation of your souls, because my Son put them there so that you may be filled with your God and be happy, so that one day not too far away you will be in the Heavenly Abodes that my God, your God, prepared. When I was a child, and after I was married, with my husband Joseph, we were at home and we sang these psalms (here she sings a psalm in another language). Thus I sang to my God and Lord, and I want you also to reach Heaven with the songs, because my God, your God, likes the melodies and the songs of his children.

Now, my children, I give you my blessing, and all of you who have brought the books and candles are also blessed, blessed by my Son and my Heart. And before I bid you farewell, my God the Father Creator, my Son Redeemer, the Holy Spirit Sanctifier, my Spouse and I, your mother Miriam, Heart of Mary, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light.

Farewell, my children, farewell little ones, go in peace, my children, farewell.

Our Mother in Monte Faro de Luz.
