Mount Lighthouse of Light [Valencia of Alcantara (Caceres) - SPAIN]

My little ones, my children, peace be in your hearts and the light of my Light in your souls.

Meditate, my children, on my little MATTHEW, so you will know more about my Son, your God, do it.

I am very happy to be here with you, my children. How much love you bring, how much love you have! But I want more, more, more sacrifice, more penance, more prayer, more confession, more temple of my Son, more Tabernacle. Tabernacle, Tabernacle. Why don't you go to the tabernacle, my children? How lazy you are to go to your God and fall to your knees and ask and say and talk with Him.

The world distracts man; they have vain things to do, and they do not focus on the things of their Creator, their God; they are lost. Why, my children? I, your Mother, come to the world to speak to you, to tell you what you have to do for the salvation of your souls. It is simple, humility, charity; ask for strength, ask for faith; faith, as you say, moves mountains. Look, my Son came to the world and they did not know Him; my Son was in the world and they mistreated Him; my Son saved the world on His Cross and they still crucify Him with the horrendous sins of man. Why are you like this, my children, why don't you look to your God, why aren't you humble once and for all? Strengthen yourselves with the love of my Son; I have said it so many times, and today I am saying it again, Tabernacle, Tabernacle, Tabernacle. How beautiful it is to be with my Son there in the temple, or in your homes. Make a Tabernacle in your souls so that my Son always enters you and you enter Him. Always in your hearts, in your souls, the Sap of your God.

Man without God is nothing; man's pleasures last minutes and years, but then emptiness. What good is it for man to gain the world if in the end his soul is lost because of the things of the world. The things of the world are worth nothing, my children, what is worth is your God. The Commandments, you are forgetting the Commandments; and man wants to trample the Cross, they want to throw it away, because they have stopped knowing that God, their Creator, their Jesus who came to save them; and they do not listen. I know there are many, many, millions, who love my Son, but, beware, because the Mercy of my God, your God, the word already says, is Mercy until the end, and He is waiting for man to say: "Lord I love you, forgive me, even if it is in the last second; and they are forgiven, but man goes seeking his whims, his idolatry, his gods of the world that lead nowhere. Because everything ends; I have said it so many times throughout the whole world, twenty, forty, eighty, one hundred years, what are they, if then everything is going to be left here, what good is it to store, to have and to possess. If there is no charity and the treasures that your God gives you are not well managed, you will carry them very badly. If you do everything for the love of God and show charity, that hungry one, that one who is alone, sad, abandoned, if you have no compassion and mercy for them, your God, my God, will not have it for you. And come apart to your God with love, the depth of love, to that God so merciful who is waiting for you to say: "Father, here I am, let your will be done."

But no, no, man is lazy for God, and great for the world. I tell you, my children, to reconsider, to go to confession, to confess more often, and to pray a lot for those brothers who need you.

I am a Beacon of Light and I give Light, come to my Heart and I will give you Light so that you have it in your hearts.

There are some new Mantles, which were a mistake, as you already know, new ones have been made, my children. They will be blessed by Heaven, then my son will bless them on earth, but the blessing comes from Heaven and so it is: "EVERYTHING IS BLESSED IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER AND THE SON AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE FULL TRINITY".

My children, be good, make yourselves saints; it is easy to become a saint. Look, the saints were made very easily; first by taking up the cross that the Lord commands; second humility, and thirdly, obedience: "Here I am, let your will be done."

You see how easy it is, my children; never say no, say yes; tighten your pins well, and follow your God in love, for love. You will see how easy it is to be holy; look at Saint Martin de Porres, Francis of Assisi, Padre Pio, Magdalene, Rosa of Lima. Look at that, my children; look at yourselves, you can be equal to me, as long as you do the will of your God on earth.

Forget the luxuries of vain things that are worth nothing. And, as I have said every year, on the day of the celebration of the coming of my Son to the world, place the Mystery on the tables, on your tables, with a little lamp so you remember those who do not eat that day. Remember that many do not eat, that many are in prisons, that many are poor in the world. Have compassion for all. My Son was born in a manger, naked, died naked, had nothing, and was the King of Kings. What humility! Imitate the humility of your God, do not have luxuries in your hearts; give, for whoever gives receives a hundredfold. My children, I love you so much, of all you are asking me for, many will be healed and many are being healed. But the most important thing is the soul, the soul that is clean, clean, so one day you will go to the Celestial Dwellings.

I love you, my children, and I say goodbye with my Heart, with my Divine Heart, and with my Mantle that covers you all equally. Come to Lighthouse of Light, here I am and I will always be, always, when you say: "Lighthouse of Light come to me." I will be with all of you.

My children, I love you and give you my blessing, but first, as always, my God the Father Creator, my Son Redeemer, the Holy Spirit Sanctifier, and I your Mother Miriam, Heart of Mary, Lighthouse of Light, Lighthouse of Light, Lighthouse of Light.

Goodbye, little ones, goodbye, my children, goodbye. Go with God, my children, goodbye, goodbye...
